

One Piece For Two Upcoming new versions

Following new versions and add-ons will become available in 2024:

1. Magnetic Edition

Crafted from maple wood, the magnetic version features game pieces with top imprints and a magnetic undercoating. The metalized game board showcases a 10x10 grid. This deluxe edition is set to be available in the spring of 2024.

2. Additional Game Pieces Box

For those desiring more game pieces (allowing the placement of over 20 on the board), an add-on box will be released in the spring of 2024.

3. One Piece For Two - Free Placement Mode

Introducing a version where players can freely place game pieces anywhere on the grid, admitting free spaces between the game pieces and borders. This edition, playable by two or four players, is scheduled to be available in the summer of 2024.

4. Design Edition with Color-Anodized Aluminum Game Pieces

Experience the game in style with a design version featuring color-anodized aluminum game pieces. This aesthetically pleasing edition is set to launch in the autumn of 2024.
